Heating Instructions

FRESH FOOD

Store in fridge until ready to consume.

MICROWAVE: Pierce film with fork several times before microwaving and heat for 1-2 minutes.

OVEN: Place in preheated oven with seal on for 10 minutes at 160—180°C.

FROZEN FOOD

Store in freezer. Take out of freezer and defrost in the fridge overnight.

Note: food should be thawing in the fridge at least 12 hours prior to heating

MICROWAVE: Pierce film with fork several times before microwaving and heat for 1-2 minutes. If not enough heat for another 1 minute at a time.

OVEN: Place in preheated oven with seal on for 10 minutes at 160—180°C.

Note: DO NOT heat food directly from the freezer in the microwave. If you do you are actually cooking the food again!!!! This changes the quality of our meals and they will not taste as nice as they should.

FRESH SOUP

MICROWAVE: Lift seal on one side and then heat for 1 minute.
If 1 minute is not enough heat for another 1 minute at a time

FROZEN SOUP

EITHER defrost in fridge overnight and then heat in microwave as above
OR remove lid (see instructions below) and defrost in microwave.

1. Find the plastic tab on the side of the lid

2. Pull the tab down and break off

3. Lift off the top part of the lid
